

Philippe Boivin

Professional photographer and videographer (he)

514 -250-7577

phil@philboivin.com | www.philboivin.com

Philippe Boivin is a professional photographer, videographer and drone pilot that caters to different fields and industries. He also covers Montreal related news through various documentary and editorial projects.

Clients describe Boivin as creative, rigorous and organized, and as someone that invests himself in each project with passion and dedication.

Professional experience & clients

Boivin has been a photographer and videographer since 2015, covering the following fields: corporate, events, editorial, portraits, real estate, advertisements, schools, and weddings.

Clients : Cirque du Soleil, Bell Média, Cégep Gérald Godin, Beyond the Rack, Universus Media Group, I/Drone Montréal, Englobe, Institut de Cardiologie de Montréal, Association Canadienne d'Orthopédie, Enfants Clic, Groupe Mackay, ISAAC Instruments, Quartier de l'innovation, and more.

Several years of experience as a manager in IT, marketing and communication.

Training & certifications

Concordia University (2015-2019)

Diploma in photography

Transport Canada (2019)

Drone pilot certification - Advanced operations

I am fluent in French and English.

Portfolio and projects

To review the online portfolio, visit: www.philboivin.com

To review sample editorial projects, visit : Taxi | Cirque du Soleil | Flashback

